RSC 2007 New Fellows: Making a Difference in the Lives of Canadians

OTTAWA – RSC: The Academies of Arts, Humanities and Sciences of Canada, has elected 78 new Fellows, 1 Foreign Fellow and 1 Specially Elected Fellow to its ranks.* In keeping with the motto of the Society, “Different paths, one vision”, the newly elected Fellows, while coming from diverse backgrounds and disciplines, are dedicated to achieving excellence in their endeavours, thus enhancing Canada’s competitiveness on a global basis.

RSC, founded in 1882, is Canada’s oldest and most prestigious scholarly organization. Election to RSC is the highest honour that can be attained by scholars, artists and scientists in Canada. “The Society is proud to celebrate the intellectual achievements of the new Fellows”, said Dr. Patricia Demers, President of the Society. “We wish to recognize the extraordinary accomplishments of persons of talent, expertise and creativity in all fields, from experimental and applied sciences to health and medical sciences, and from social sciences and humanities to the various artistic domains.”

Canadians have directly benefited from the outstanding achievements of these individuals. The new Fellows of RSC are among those who, today, build the world we will live in tomorrow.

This year’s new Fellows will be inducted at a ceremony to be held Saturday, November 17, 2007 in Edmonton. The complete list of newly elected Fellows and their affiliations is attached. The nomination citations for each of them can be obtained by visiting our website at www.rsc.ca.

(*These individuals have been offered Fellowship in the Society, but this becomes effective only upon acceptance by prospective Fellows of the terms and conditions attached to this honour.)
