Clinical Skills in Well Woman Care

STANDARDIZED PATIENT PROGRAM

TARGET AUDIENCE

Registered Nurses, Registered Practical Nurses, Nurse Practitioners, Physician Assistants and Midwives.

OBJECTIVES

1. Provide the learner with an overview of the normal anatomy of the female genitalia and breasts.
2. Review the current clinical guidelines for biologic and cytological screening for common gynecologic conditions.
3. Demonstrate the clinical approach to the assessment of the female genital tract.
4. Provide an opportunity for the learner to practice the speculum exam in a supervised educational setting, on live teaching models.
5. Demonstrate the clinical approach to the breast exam and teaching techniques for the breast self-examination (BSE), on live teaching models.
6. Provide the learner with an overview of sexually transmitted infections.

THE PROGRAM

The goal of this unique educational program is to provide a practical hands-on learning opportunity for health care professionals in the area of Women's Health.

The attendees will have the opportunity to begin to develop the clinical skill set necessary to perform breast and pelvic assessments of the well woman.

As well, this introductory program will cover the current guidelines and sampling techniques used in screening, diagnosis, and follow-up of common gynecological conditions of the female genital tract.
