

14th Annual Student Research Day
Thursday, June 22, 2017
Juravinski Cancer Centre

Oral Presentation Category

1st Place

Sophie Poznanski

Graduate Student, Medical Sciences

Supervisor, Dr. Ali Ashkar, Professor, Pathology & Molecular Medicine

Title: The adoptive transfer of patients' own expanded NK cells as a novel therapeutic for ovarian cancer

2nd Place

Mira Goldberg

Clinical Research Fellow, Division of Radiation Oncology

Supervisor: Dr. Timothy Whelan, Professor, Division Radiation Oncology, Department of Oncology

Title: The effect of boost radiation after breast conserving therapy on local control and adverse effects:
A systematic review and meta-analysis

3rd Place

Oren Levine

Clinical Research Fellow, Division of Medical Oncology

Supervisor: Dr. Bindi Dhesy, Associate Professor, Division of Medical Oncology, Department of Oncology

Title: The PULSES Project: Teaching the vital elements of code status discussions to Oncology residents

Poster Presentation Category

1st Place

Blessing Bassey-Archibong

Graduate Student, Department of Biology

Supervisor: Dr. Juliet Daniel, Professor, Department of Biology

Title: Kaiso is more highly expressed in TNBC tissues from Women of African Ancestry (WAA) compared with Caucasian TNBC tissues

2nd Place

Oren Levine

Clinical Research Fellow, Division of Medical Oncology

Supervisor: Dr. Som Mukherjee, Associate Professor, Division of Medical Oncology, Department of Oncology

Title: Code status communication training in Canadian Postgraduate Oncology Programs: A Needs Assessment Survey

3rd Place

Anish Arora

Undergraduate Student, Department of Biology

Supervisor: Dr. Hsien Seow, Associate Professor, Department of Oncology

Title: Does Access to End-of-Life Homecare Nursing Differ by Province and Community Size?: A population-based cohort study for cancer decedents across Canada