

The 17th Annual Innovations in Palliative Care Virtual Conference

Showcasing Quality Improvement in Palliative Care

NEW DATE

Wednesday, March 3, 2021
2-7pm EST

TARGET AUDIENCE:

- Family Physicians and Primary Care Providers
- Palliative Care Clinicians
- Quality Improvement Specialists
- Health Care Providers whose practice includes care of seriously ill and the dying
- Administration and Organizational Leaders

OVERALL PROGRAM LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

- At the end of this learning activity the learners will be able to:
- Provide examples of quality improvement projects related to palliative care
 - Identify facilitators and barriers to the implementation and uptake of QI projects
 - Reflect on the relevance of presented QI projects to one's practice
 - Reflect on improvement opportunities in one's own practice

MORE INFORMATION:

Tracy MacKinnon
Division of Palliative Care, McMaster U
e: tmackin@mcmaster.ca

MARK YOUR CALENDAR

REGISTRATION FEES:

~~$75 for physicians~~
~~$50 for nursing/allied health/other~~

FEE REDUCED for all participants to $25 each

<https://fhs.mcmaster.ca/palliativecare/continuinged.html>